

SMUGGLING.

More About the Gigantic Frauds in New York.

A case has recently been revealed, showing that Messrs. Feigelstock and Bendino, importers, formerly doing business in Read street, in this city, have probably defrauded the Government largely by smuggling shawls, silks, etc., through the Custom House.

An officer of the Treasury Department worked up the case, and on Saturday last arrested Sigismund and Simon Guterman, mentioned above, at the guilty parties.

CITY ITEMS.

We have the evidence each day of numbers who purchase their goods under different names, other stocks, which, under different names, are sold as "sacred" that our goods are sold at lower prices than any other clothing in Philadelphia.

NOT SO CHEAP AS REPRESENTED, and the public those who have purchased them and those who have not—many of the former to their cost, are generally becoming aware of this fact.

OUR STOCK IS FULL AND COMPLETE, our assortment unbroken, we being in receipt of every style of large and small goods, replacing those sold, which are being manufactured out.

TO BE SACRIFICED, but to successfully compete with any other goods in the market in all respects, style, fit, make, or price.

WE IN GOOD FAITH carry out our established rule, now, as at all other times.

WE GUARANTEE our goods to be the lowest elsewhere; also, guarantee full satisfaction to every purchaser, or the sale cancelled and money refunded.

PROTECT OUR PATRONS and fully carry out this rule at present, we have reduced all prices.

WE RESPECTFULLY REQUEST our buyers of clothing after having examined the stocks which are being "sacred," to examine ours before purchasing. A FAIR TEST IS ALL WE ASK.

DYSPEPSIA CURED for $1.

One box of Dr. Wishart's Great American Dyspepsia Pills (which cost $4) are warranted to cure the most aggravated and long-standing case of Dyspepsia. Reader, we ask you a simple question. Is it wise to suffer all the agonizing torments of this wretched disease, when you can for the paltry sum of $1 be cured? They can be had of Dr. Wishart at his Great Family Medicine Store, No. 232 North Second street, Philadelphia, where an excellent and regular practicing physician will be found in attendance, who can be consulted free of charge. Sent by mail on receipt of price.

For the benefit of the afflicted we insert the following certificates of cure which have been handed us for publication. Call and see the parties, and learn more concerning the efficacy of Dr. Wishart's wonderful remedies.

Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia!

I, Elizabeth Branson, of Brandywine, Del., formerly of Old Chester, Del., do certify that for one year and a half I suffered everything but death from that awful disease called Dyspepsia. My whole system was prostrated with weakness and nervous debility; I could not digest my food; if I ate even a cracker or the smallest amount of food, it would return just as I swallowed it; I became so constipated in my bowels that I would not have a passage in less than from four and often eight days. Under this immense suffering my mind seemed entirely to give way. I had dreadful horror and evil forebodings. I thought everybody hated me, and I hated everybody; I could not bear my husband nor my own children, everything appeared to be horror-stricken to me; I had no ambition to do anything; I lost all my love of family and home; I would ramble and wander from place to place, but could not be contented. I felt that I was doomed to hell, and that there was no heaven for me, and was often tempted to commit suicide. So near was my whole nervous system destroyed, and so my mind, from that awful complaint, Dyspepsia, that my friends thought best to have me placed in Dr. Kirkbride's Hospital, at West Philadelphia. I remained there nine weeks, and thought I was a little better, but in a few days my dreadful complaint was raging as bad as ever. Hearing of the wonderful cures performed by Dr. Wishart's Great American Dyspepsia Pills and his treatment for Dyspepsia, my husband called on Dr. Wishart and stated my case to him. He said he had no doubt he could cure me. So in three days after I called and placed myself under the Doctor's treatment, and in two weeks I began to digest my food, and felt that my disease was fast giving way, and I continued to recover for about three months, and at the present time I enjoy perfect health of body and mind, and I most sincerely return my thanks to a merciful God and Dr. Wishart, and to his Great American Dyspepsia Pills and Pine Tree Tar Cordial, that saved me from an insane asylum and a premature grave. All persons suffering with Dyspepsia are at liberty to call on me or write, as I am willing to do all the good I can for suffering humanity. RICHARD BRANSON, Brandywine, Del., formerly of Old Chester, Delaware.

DR. WISHART'S COLUMN.

DR. WISHART—I have been a constant sufferer with Dyspepsia for the last eighteen years, during which time I cannot say that I ever enjoyed a perfectly well day. There were times when the symptoms were more aggravated than at others, and then it seemed it would be a great relief to die. I had at all times an unpleasant feeling in my head, but latterly my sufferings so much increased that I became almost unfit for business of any kind; my mind was continually filled with gloomy thoughts and forebodings, and I attempted to change their current by reading, at once a sensation of icy coldness in connection with a dead weight, as it were, rested upon my brain; also a feeling of sickness would occur at the stomach, and great pain to my eyes, accompanied with which was the continual fear of losing my reason. I also experienced great lassitude, debility, and nervousness, which made it difficult to walk by day or sleep at night. I became averse to society, and disposed only to seclusion, and, having tried the skill of a number of eminent physicians of various schools, finally came to the conclusion that, for this disease, at my present age, forty-five years, there was no cure in existence. But, through the interference of Divine Providence, to whom I devoutly offer my thanks, I at last found a sovereign remedy in your Dyspepsia Pills and Tar Cordial, which seem to have effectually removed almost the last trace of my long list of ailments, and had feelings, and in their place health, pleasure, and contentment are my every-day companions.
